

INJAZ Bahrain Spotlight

Her Highness Shaikha Hessa Appointed as Chairwoman of INJAZ Bahrain

INJAZ Bahrain recently announced new changes to its managing board, with Her Highness Shaikha Hessa bint Khalifa Al Khalifa appointed as INJAZ Bahrain's Chairwoman, where she is newly joined by Dr. Ebrahim Janahi, Chief Executive of Tamkeen, as INJAZ Bahrain's new Vice Chairman. Ms. Hana Sarwani formerly INJAZ Bahrain's Chief Operating Officer will now take over duties as INJAZ Bahrain's new Executive Director.

Commenting on changes to the board, Her Highness Shaikha Hessa Bint Khalifa Al Khalifa, the Chairwoman of INJAZ Bahrain said: "We would like to first thank Dr. Abdulrahman Jawahery our previous Chairman for his dedication, leadership and tireless efforts in making INJAZ Bahrain a resounding success, and are extremely grateful for his unwavering support throughout the years. We are proud to welcome Dr. Ebrahim Janahi to our organization as our Vice Chairman bringing his years of valued experience; Dr. Janahi and Tamkeen have been longstanding partners of INJAZ Bahrain throughout the years and share in our mission to develop and empower Bahrain's youth. INJAZ Bahrain seeks to continue enhance its offerings to students and we look forward to the direction the future will take."

INJAZ Bahrain collaborates with the Ministry of Education to brief primary school principals

INJAZ Bahrain, in collaboration with the Ministry of Education (MOE), recently held an orientation meeting with the principals of primary public schools at the Sheikh Khalifa Bin Salman Institute of Technology.

65 principals from across the kingdom attended the meeting which focused on INJAZ Bahrain's programs, the role of schools in implementing the programs and the criteria for choosing the winner of the 2017-2018 best school award.

Hana Sarwani, Executive Director of INJAZ Bahrain commented: "We would like to thank the Ministry of Education for making this possible. It would have been a difficult task to coordinate with so many schools without the support of MOE. The level of enthusiasm we see from principals at these orientations is fantastic. Everyone is here for the soul purpose of empowering the youth of Bahrain and it makes for a very engaging atmosphere. We hope to continue reaching as many students as possible and the school principals are a key aspect towards achieving that goal."

INJAZ Bahrain wins the Bahrain International 2018 CSR Award

Under the patronage of His Excellence Shaikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, the Minister of Oil, Bahrain International CSR and Sustainability conference 2018 was inaugurated today presenting INJAZ Bahrain with a CSR award for its dedication in addressing fundamental and social economic challenges of youth by educating and empowering them transform their future and own their economic success. The two-day event held on the 17th and 18th of October, at the Intercontinental Regency -Bahrain, was attended by delegates from diverse industries, all of whom play a vital role in corporate social responsibility and environment sustainability.

The award presented by Bahrain CSR society Chairman, Mr. Khalid Al Qoud, was received by Mrs. Hana Sarwani, INJAZ Bahrain's Executive Director. The award comes as a recognition token for INJAZ's tireless and determined efforts in educating, inspiring and preparing the Kingdom's youth to succeed in the global economy.

Annual Appreciation Day for Schools & Universities

INJAZ Bahrain held a ceremony to thank the Ministry of Education for all the support they have provided with creative engagement, strategic initiatives and economic empowerment. The ceremony, held at the Ministry's premises, was attended His Excellence, Dr. Fawzi Al Jowder, Mrs. Hana Sarwani, INJAZ Bahrain's Executive Director, INJAZ Board of Directors, and over 500 attendees, including ministry delegates, volunteers, corporate sponsors, principals and teachers from both public and private schools and universities.

The event ran a busy agenda, starting off with a speech by Ms. Hana Sarwani, INJAZ Bahrain's Executive Director, followed by an inspiring speech by INJAZ alumni, a speech by a principal of a participating school and a video showcasing INJAZ's students' journey through out INJAZ. The event wrapped up with an award recognition session.

Mrs. Hana Sarwani, His Excellence Dr. Fawzi el Jowder, Mr. Ali Albaqali – Deputy CEO of Aluminum Bahrain and Mr. Mohammed Bu Rashed from Bahrain National Gas presented the awards and certificates of recognition to the following educational institutes; Al Oqbah Bin Nafea School for the best primary school, Al Hidd Boys School for the best intermediate school, West Riffa Girls school for the best secondary school, Arabian Pearl Gulf School for the best private school, and University of Bahrain for the best university. Platinum, gold and silver volunteers from the Ministry of Education have been awarded for their outstanding performance and dedicated volunteering hours.

ALUMNI News

Bahrain's Proud Students at JA Global Youth Forum in Mexico

Two students finish 1st and 2nd in the Pitch Competition category while a third came in 2nd in the Change Maker competition

INJAZ Bahrain recently sent a delegation of alumni students, sponsored by Tamkeen, to participate in the first Global JA Worldwide Youth Forum held in Morelos, Mexico. The five-day forum saw 600 students in attendance, representing more than 50 countries, who partook in 50+ entrepreneurship activities and one business competition per day. Mohamed AlMakeerat and Turki Al Qahtani came in 1st and 2nd during the 'Pitch Competition' while Noor Benshams came in 2nd in the 'Change Makers' category. Abdulrahman Al Sabagh was also nominated to the finals of the IQ competition.

The first JA Worldwide Youth Forum was held in celebration of JA Worldwide's 100th anniversary and is part of an 18-month centennial celebration. Over 700 people attended including JA staff, board members, students and chaperons from around the globe. Attendees benefited from world-class keynote speakers, alumni panels, entrepreneurial workshops, recreational and team-building activities and more.

Mohamed AlMakeerat won 1st place during the 'Pitch Competition' while Turki Al Qahtani grabbed second in the same category. The competition is judged based on entrepreneurial culture based on pitch and mentorship, entrepreneurial talent, problem solving in specific market segments and is a practice opportunity on how to approach investment funds.

In the 'Change Makers' competition, students dressed up as their favorite changemaker in history and deliver a presentation to the forum. Noor Benshams won the 2nd place spot presenting as HRH Princess Sabeeka Bint Ebrahim Al Khalifa, Wife of the King of Bahrain and President of the Supreme Council for Women.

Exciting Highlights!

Bahrain TV Coverage
on INJAZ Bahrain Annual Appreciation Day for Schools & Universities

Click Here To View Our 2017-2018 Annual Report

Invest in INJAZ Bahrain

Powerful in our purpose.

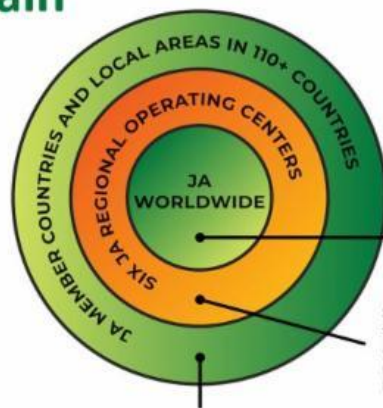

Teaching practical skills through innovative, experiential programs designed to transform lives and livelihoods.

Global in our network.

INJAZ Bahrain's vast volunteer network—board members, employee volunteers, and alumni—bring real-world business expertise, passion, and creativity to the organization.

Pivotal in changing lives.

INJAZ Bahrain is a transformational series of events that build confidence and better decision-making, alters school and career trajectories and ultimately improves livelihoods.

The global heart of Junior Achievement brings innovation, technology, and partnerships to the JA network.

Six regional operating centers on five continents manage regional operations, program development, marketing, and fundraising under independent governance.

Local JA offices manage local operations, program development, marketing, and fundraising under independent governance.

INJAZ Bahrain | Phone: 17225050 | Email: injaz@batelco.com | Website : www.injazbh.org

STAY CONNECTED

